

Certified Scorekeeper Test

8-Ball

1. What does the score sheet ensure? _____
2. How do you determine the number you put in the Games Must Win box? _____
3. What does a B&R mean when indicated in a game box? _____
4. An inning is never marked until the _____/_____ player misses or fouls.
5. An inning is over at the end of the match regardless of who loses. True or False?
6. Safeties are _____ and intentionally missed shots for defensive purposes.
7. The marking of a defensive shot does not affect the marking of the inning. True or False?
8. What does 8WP mean when indicate in a game box?
9. How can a player earn a 2-1 win? _____
10. What were the names of the two shooters in the Scorekeeping Video? _____ & _____

9-Ball

11. What does a brand new APA Male 9-Ball player start as? _____
12. The team's _____ who puts up the first player in each match.
13. What does the bolded numbers above and below the player information indicate? _____
14. A player receives 1 point when fouling and pocketing a ball. True or False?
15. Each rack/game adds up to _____ total points.
16. All balls left on the table after the match is over are called _____ balls.
17. You use the winner's skill level to determine the match points. True or False?
18. A time out is wrote where on the scoresheet? _____
19. What does 9OS mean? _____
20. What are the names of each captain who signed the 9-Ball scoresheets?

